PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Good evening. It is an honor to represent the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame Executive Committee and welcome you to our 46th annual banquet and induction ceremony.

The Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame was founded in 1975 to celebrate Beaver County individuals who have made important contributions to sports. This evening, we continue that tradition by inducting nine members of the Class of 2023. We will also present a special achievement award, and we will honor student-athletes from county high school and colleges, county coaches who have won a championship since our last banquet, and the Dick Kadis college athlete of the year. Moreover, we will present to four deserving high school student-athletes two $1,000 Past Presidents scholarships from the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame Executive Committee, a $1,000 scholarship from the Beaver County YMCA, and a $1,000 scholarship from Tri-County Management (McDonald's).

We encourage you to read our program booklet to learn more about the remarkable accomplishments of tonight's honorees, and we encourage you to nominate deserving individuals for consideration for induction, to help us continue to recognize the rich tradition of Beaver County sports.

The Hall wants to acknowledge and thank the individuals, businesses, colleges, and other organizations that have participated in our new sponsorship program. These sponsors are listed on the inside back cover of the program booklet and will be listed on our website throughout the banquet year. Community support is essential to help maintain the Hall's mission, so we ask you to patronize our sponsors, who help us to celebrate and preserve Beaver County sports history and to continue to offer high school scholarships.

The Hall thanks all guests in attendance this evening for supporting us by purchasing tickets, and we thank the past inductees in attendance tonight, our vendors, and the news media who inform the community about our organization and banquet. In addition, I thank each past, present, and future member of the Executive Committee for their assistance.

The Hall hopes that you enjoy tonight's banquet and induction ceremony and that you have an opportunity to meet with old friends and to make new friends. We encourage you to visit our website (www.bcshof.org) to learn more about our organization, the history of Beaver County sports, and the impressive careers of all the Hall's inductees.

Yours in sports,

LARRY ZIGERELL

President, Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame

Nominate someone for the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame!

Nominations are due by October 1 for consideration for the next banquet. Nominations are kept on file for five years. To be eligible for induction, a candidate must have a reasonable connection to Beaver County, the candidate must have made an outstanding contribution to sports or sport-related activities, and 35 years must have elapsed from the candidate's date of birth. For a nomination form, see the "Submit a Nomination" tab on our website at www.bcshof.org. Please submit nomination forms to webmaster@bcshof.org. Contact 724-561-3226 or jzigerell@gmail.com with questions.

History of the Inductee Plaques

Thousands of persons have contributed to Beaver County sports, but to date only 485 have been immortalized by their induction into the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame. Each inductee has a commemorative plaque to honor the inductee and tell the inductee's story.

The inductee plaques were housed at the Golden Dome of the Community College of Beaver County for 37 years, from 1976 to 2012. In 2008, the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame website was designed and created by L.J Zigerell, but, at that time, the plaques were not included on the website. Due to the renovation of the Golden Dome, all 375 plaques were removed on November 11, 2012, with the intention of distributing them to their representing school districts. At the Golden Dome that day, Larry Zigerell mentioned to the committee members present the loss of sports history if the plaques were distributed prior to being scanned. Thus, all plaques were delivered to Larry's home, and L.J scanned and added each plaque to the website. The scans of the plaques were posted online May 10, 2013, and the plaques were donated to inductees' high schools or colleges, where many of the plaques are on display today.

The history of Beaver County sports is told by the Hall of Fame plaques. We invite you to browse the Hall of Fame website to learn more about the history of Beaver County sports.

John BURKETT

Baseball • Beaver

John Burkett has had a striking athletic career.

In the 1980s, John played baseball for Beaver High School, and he and future Major League pitcher Doug Piatt pitched every other game for the Bobcats in 1983, winning the Class AAA WPIAL title under coach Ed Snitger. That year, the San Francisco Giants drafted John in the sixth round of the amateur draft. Over the next few years, John played for rookie Great Falls, single-A Clinton, single-A Fresno, and double-A Shreveport.

John's Major League debut was in September 1987, after which he returned to the minors for two years, at triple-A Phoenix and double-A Shreveport. John returned to the Majors in 1990, and over his Major League career compiled a 166-136 record across 445 regular season games, with the San Francisco Giants (1987, 1990-1994), Florida Marlins (1995, 1996), Texas Rangers (1996-1999), Atlanta Braves (2000-2001), and Boston Red Sox (2002-2003). John pitched in six postseason games, earning a 2-1 record, and making the National League Championship Series in 2001 and the American League Championship Series in 2003.

John's accolades include All-Star selections in 1993 and 2001, finishing fourth in voting for the National League Rookie of the Year in 1990, and finishing fourth in voting for the National League Cy Young Award in 1993, the year in which John led the Majors with 22 wins, tied with Tom Glavine and Jack McDowell. Moreover, John was named to the inaugural class of the San Francisco Giants Wall of Fame in 2008, the 50th anniversary of the Giants' first season in San Francisco.

Few athletes have the skill to excel professionally in two sports. Not only was John a Major League pitcher, but, following baseball retirement, and after John turned age 50, he decided to live out his second dream and pursue the Senior Professional Bowlers Tour. Throwing strikes has continued to be his specialty, compiling nearly 100 perfect games and, in 2022, winning the PBA50 South Shore Open in Hammond, Indiana, becoming the first crossover athlete to win a National PBA Title.

Virginia CARVER

Baseball • New Brighton

Living across from the Oak Hill Playground in New Brighton provided Virginia Carver the opportunity to practice her favorite sport: baseball. Virginia was chosen first for neighborhood baseball teams and was almost always the only girl to play. She spent much time honing her baseball skills at the playground.

Virginia's father realized his daughter's athletic ability and, in 1953, contacted Joe Tronzo of the News Tribune, who helped secure Virginia a tryout with the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League (AAGPBL) founded by Cubs' owner Philip K. Wrigley. Many male baseball players served in World War II, and Wrigley wanted to keep the game of baseball alive. The AAGPBL existed from 1943 to 1954 and provided more than 600 women the opportunity to play baseball at the ultimate level. The league had strict rules for the women, who were required to wear skirts or skorts, were not permitted to smoke or drink in public, and were unable to date without the approval of the team chaperone. The women's experiences in the AAGPBL were famously depicted in the 1992 movie "A League of their Own".

In 1953, Virginia signed with the AAGPBL, reporting to spring training camp for the South Bend Blue Sox, one of the founding teams of the league. Virginia played for the Blue Sox in 1953 and the Fort Wayne Daisies in 1954, winning the pennant that season. During her career, Virginia took the field as a pitcher, catcher, shortstop, and outfielder.

The AAGPBL folded in 1954, and, in 1955, Virginia joined the U.S. Air Force's Women in the Air Force program. For eight of her eleven years in the service, Virginia played for the Air Force women's softball teams, traveling the country playing against college teams and teams from other Air Force bases. After her military service, Virginia settled in Petaluma, CA, and, in 1967, was hired by the Petaluma Post Office, where she worked for 31 years. Virginia was the first woman letter carrier in Petaluma.

In 1989, the women of the AAGPBL were recognized at the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, NY, at the "Diamond Dreams: Women in Baseball" exhibit. Virginia is listed on a permanent plaque in the Hall honoring the AAGPBL. To date, Virginia is the only New Brighton graduate honored in Cooperstown. In 2008, Virginia was inducted into the New Brighton Hall of Fame.

Virginia passed away at age 87 on December 9, 2022, in Petaluma. She left her entire estate to Petaluma Parks and Recreation, due to her love of sports and memories of her childhood playground.

Sam DiMATTEO

Baseball • Center

Sam DiMatteo grew up in Center Township playing football, basketball, and baseball. At Center High School, Sam lettered three years in football and, in baseball, lettered each year and made All-Conference three times (2003, 2004, 2005). In 2005, Sam was named Baseball Player of the Year by the Beaver County Times, was named WPIAL Class AA Player of the Year, and was named to the All-State team.

From 2007 to 2010, Sam played baseball at California University of Pennsylvania, where he majored in business marketing. For the Vulcans, Sam was a four-year starter, three-time first-team All-Conference for the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (2008, 2009, 2010), two-time first-team All-Region (2009, 2010), and National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association All-American (2009 third team, 2010 honorable mention). Sam helped lead the Vulcans to win the 2010 PSAC Championship and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player after going 10-for-17 (.588). Sam set all-time CalU records for hits (223), runs (175), and steals (115), with the 115 steals also setting a PSAC record, which as of 2023 remains CalU and PSAC records. Sam finished his college career with 31 home runs and 161 RBIs, which were respectively second and third in CalU history. In 2010, the Vulcans qualified for the NCAA Tournament.

In 2009, Sam played for the Florence Red Wolves and made the National Coastal Plains League All-Star Team. In 2011, the Washington Nationals invited Sam to spring training. Sam then played outfield in independent leagues, with the Ruidoso Osos (2011), Trinidad Triggers (2013), Fort Worth Cats (2014), Old Orchard Beach Surge (2015), Long Island Ducks (2015), and Sonoma Stompers (2016), finishing his independent league career with a .317 batting average in 628 plate appearances across 174 games.

Since his playing days, Sam has coached baseball. Starting in 2017, Sam served as batting coach for the Palm Springs Power, which won the California Collegiate League Championship in 2017 and 2019. Sam has managed the Arrowhead LumberJacks, which won the Power Summer Collegiate League Championship in 2019 and 2022. Sam was an assistant coach for the College of the Desert Roadrunners in 2018 and 2019, and, in 2020, Sam was promoted to head coach. In 2022, Sam's Roadrunners won the Inland Empire Conference, their first conference title in 51 years, and Sam earned the Coach of the Year honors from the Conference, a first for the College of the Desert.

Sam founded the non-profit SD Project (www.thesdproject.com) with the mission to keep sports dreams alive for at-risk athletes worldwide who face financial, mental, or physical struggles. In 2019, California University of Pennsylvania awarded Sam a Humanitarian Award, and, in 2020, Sam was inducted into the California University of Pennsylvania Athletics Hall of Fame.

Brandon FUSS-CHEATHAM

Basketball • Blackhawk

Brandon Fuss-Cheatham began his basketball journey at a very young age, when his mother Chris Fuss-Cheatham and his father Jeff Cheatham put a basketball in his crib.

Over the years, Brandon's father spent thousands of hours training Brandon to be a point guard. Brandon further developed his game playing for Ammons Running Rebels as a kid and then for the Pittsburgh J.O.T.S. (John Orville Team Sports) 15-and-under Amateur Athletic Union team.

Playing basketball at Blackhawk High School, Brandon scored 2,281 points, which was the best of all time at Blackhawk. Brandon helped lead Blackhawk to four section championships (1998, 1999, 2000, 2001), two WPIAL championships (1999, 2000), and a PIAA championship (1999), earning Post-Gazette Fabulous Five and All-State honors three times (1999, 2000, 2001). At Blackhawk, Brandon was trained by legendary coach John Miller, who recently commented that "Not only was Brandon Fuss-Cheatham one of our greatest basketball players at Blackhawk High School but also one of the nicest guys I've ever coached on the court, he was a bolt of lightning that struck fear in many opponents. I was very lucky to have coached such a talented individual".

Brandon's dedication and skill led him to be named the Pennsylvania Gatorade Player of the Year in 2000, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Male High School Athlete of the Year in 2001, the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review Boys Basketball Player of the Year in 2001, and ESPN ranked Brandon at tenth among point guards for the freshman class of 2000-2001.

6-foot-1 Brandon continued his basketball career at The Ohio State University as their point guard from 2001 through 2005. In 2002, the OSU basketball team won the Big Ten Championship, won the Big Ten Tournament, and participated in the NCAA Tournament. Over his college career, Brandon had 50 starts in 113 games, with 397 points, 236 assists, and 71 steals, finishing eighth in the Big Ten in assists in 2004-2005.

Brandon's love of basketball motivated him to be successful on the court, but his dedication and leadership skills have also been instrumental in laying the foundation for his successful business career. Brandon is the founder of Moby Dick 3PL, an E-commerce Fulfillment Center servicing some of the most recognized brands. Brandon lives in Columbus, OH, with his wife Alaina and daughters Sydney and Dylan.

Mark LYONS

Coaching • Central Valley

A life-long resident of Monaca, Mark Lyons grew up with sports playing an important role in his life. Many of his childhood days were spent in sports with his three brothers, his sister, and his many friends from the Monaca neighborhoods.

At Monaca High School, Mark was a three-sport athlete, playing basketball, baseball, and football. As a junior in 1982, Mark was part of the state championship basketball team and the WPIAL championship football team, for which he played running back and cornerback.

Upon graduation, Mark enrolled at Penn State Beaver to continue his education, playing baseball and basketball. However, it was not until his second year at Penn State, when approached by his former coach and close friend Alan Guandolo to volunteer as a high school football coach, that Mark's career path would change.

Mark enrolled at Geneva College to pursue a degree in education, and he would begin his high school coaching career. Mark's coaching career was shaped by many great coaches who mentored and supported him in developing as a successful coach, including his high school coaches Dave Nichol and Alan Guandolo and his college coaches Jim Karwoski and Elden Price.

Mark has coached high school football for 36 years, including 26 years as a head coach at Monaca High School (1996-2000), Mt. Pleasant Area High School (2001-2008), Freedom Area High School (2009), and Central Valley High School (2010-present). To date, Mark's record overall as a head coach is 209-96, with a 136-31 record at Central Valley.

In 2010, when Center and Monaca high schools merged, Mark was chosen to be the first head football coach of the new Central Valley High School. In his tenure as head coach of the Central Valley Warriors, his teams have won five WPIAL titles (2010, 2014, 2019, 2020, 2021) and back-to-back 3A PIAA state championships (2020, 2021).

During his coaching career, Mark has received numerous honors, including Post-Gazette Coach of the Year (2010), Pittsburgh Steelers Coach of the Week (2013, 2018), Pittsburgh Steelers Coach of the Year (2020), Beaver County Times Coach of the Year (2020), PIAA Coach of the Year (2020, 2021), NFHS Sectional Coach of the Year (2020, 2021), 3A Pennsylvania Writers Coach of the Year (2020, 2021), and a nomination for the NFL High School Coach of the Year (2021). Moreover, for the prestigious Big 33 All-Star Game, Mark served as an assistant coach in 2013 and as head coach in 2019.

Mark is currently a teacher and coach at Central Valley. He and his wife Diane live in Monaca. Mark has a son Marcus and a daughter Kaitlyn.

Darrelle REVIS

Football • Aliquippa

Darrelle Revis is a native son of Aliquippa and one of the greatest NFL cornerbacks of all time.

At Aliquippa High School, Darrelle ran track and led his basketball team in scoring on the way to two WPIAL championships and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette's Fabulous Five as a junior and senior. On the gridiron, Darrelle lined up as quarterback, tailback, receiver, cornerback, and kick returner. In 2001, Darrelle led the Quips to a 14-1 season, a WPIAL Class AA Title, and a PIAA Class AA Championship, with one of the greatest performances in PIAA Championship history, scoring a record-tying five touchdowns: three rushing touchdowns (1, 2, and 64 yards), a 69-yard blocked field goal return touchdown, and an 89-yard punt return touchdown. In his senior year in 2003, Darrelle was named Pittsburgh Tribune-Review Football Player of the Year, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Football Player of the Year, and Associated Press Pennsylvania Class AA Football Player of the Year, and was named to the Associated Press Pennsylvania Class AA All-State Team.

At the University of Pittsburgh, Darrelle lived up to the hype, becoming All-American as a freshman. Darrelle earned first team Big East his sophomore and junior years, and, during his final year at Pitt, in 2006, Darrelle solidified his position on the national stage, as a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back.

The New York Jets traded up to select Darrelle in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft, and Darrelle went on to gain worldwide acclaim as "Revis Island", the NFL's best shutdown corner. Darrelle was assigned to cover the opposing team's best receiver and consistently caused them to have some of their lowest statistics for the season and sometimes of their careers. Over eleven seasons in the NFL, Darrelle played for the New York Jets (2007-2012, 2015-2016), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2013), New England Patriots (2014), and Kansas City Chiefs (2017), with appearances in four postseasons, including a Super Bowl with the Patriots. Darrelle's accolades include being named to the 2007 All-Rookie Team, seven Pro Bowls, four First Team All-Pros, and the NFL 2010s All-Decade Team. Darrelle was named to the Jets Ring of Honor in 2022 and will be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August 2023.

Darrelle is the son of Diana Askew and Darryl Revis, and he is the nephew of NFL lineman Sean Gilbert. Darrelle's most important accomplishments happened away from the game, when he became a father to Deyani and Jayden. Today, Darrelle's family works closely with him and The Darrelle Revis Foundation to help tackle childhood hunger and to support school students with educational programs.

Willie J. SMITH III

Track and Field • Rochester

Willie James Smith III was born in Rochester, PA, and moved with his family to Long Island, NY, where he attended Uniondale High School. During high school, Willie earned the nickname "The Long Island Express", and his path to the Olympics began. Willie was a nationally renowned high-school sprinter, tying national scholastic records in the 100 meters and 220 meters, and, in 1974, Track & Field News named Willie the High School Athlete of the Year.

At Auburn University, Willie started as a sprinter but moved to the longer distance of 400 meters. Willie was indoor Southeastern Conference (SEC) champion in the 440 yards in 1976, 1977, and 1978, was outdoor SEC champion in the 440 yards in 1977 and 1978, and was NCAA indoor champion in the 440 yards in 1977 and 1978. Willie earned seven All-American honors and was a five-time SEC champion, winning the 440-yard dash indoor title three consecutive years, in 1976, 1977, and 1978, and the outdoors title back-to-back in 1977 and 1978. A team captain his last two seasons at Auburn, Willie was recognized his senior year with his university's highest honor, as Athlete of the Year.

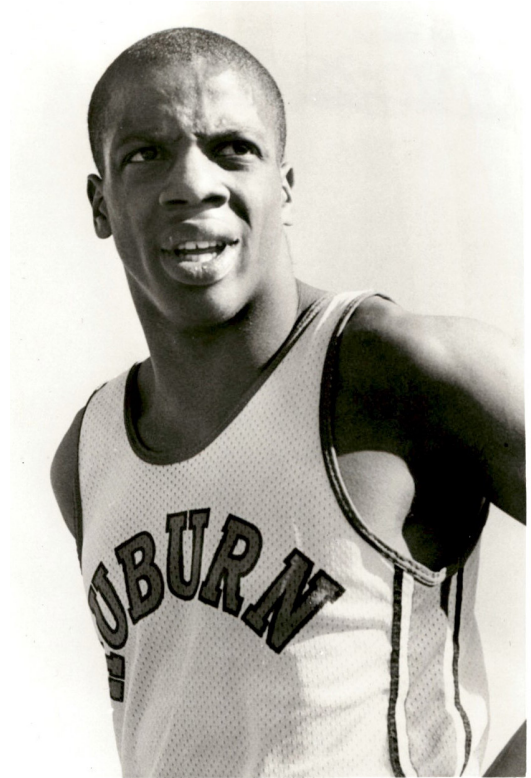

As current Auburn head track coach Ralph Spry indicated:

"Willie Smith is one of the all-time track and field greats at Auburn, who helped the program gain national prominence as a sprints school."

Over his career, Willie won numerous medals. In 1977, Willie won silver in the 400 meters at the World University Games in Bulgaria, alongside gold with the U.S. 4x400 meter relay team. In 1979, Willie won bronze in the 400 meters at the Pan American Games in San Juan, Puerto Rico. At the International Association of Athletics Federation World Cup in Athletics, Willie won gold in the 4x100 relay in Montreal in 1979 and gold in the 4x400 relay in Rome in 1981. Moreover, in 1979 and 1980, Willie was USA Outdoor Track and Field Champion in the 400 meters.

Willie made the 1976 U.S. Olympic team as an alternate for the 4x100 relay team. He made the 1980 U.S. Olympic team and finished second in the 400 meters at the U.S. Olympic Trials, but he did not compete in Moscow due to the United States' boycott of the Olympic games. At the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles, Willie won the gold medal as part of the U.S. team in the 4x400 relay. Willie was a member of the first place 1600 meters relay team at the 1991 World Indoor Championships in Spain, and, in 1996, the New York Times covered Willie's attempt to make the 1996 Olympic team at age 40.

Willie was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Auburn Tiger Trail in 2000. Willie died November 7, 2020, at age 64, in Sylacauga, AL. He was survived by wife Dona and daughter Kendal.

Fred VUICH

Sports Media • Midland

Midland native Fred Vuich is one of the most celebrated golf photographers in history.

No matter where he lives, Fred always considers Midland his home. Fred graduated from Midland High School in 1973 and Penn State University in 1977 with a degree in journalism. In 1983, Fred published his first photo, with the Associated Press, of Reggie Miller at the 1983 Dapper Dan Roundball Classic.

In 1983, at the U.S. Open in Oakmont, PA, Fred photographed his first golf major, for the Associated Press, during which he took an exclusive photo of a golfer playing in short pants that Fred sold to Golf Magazine. In 1984, Fred was hired as the Pittsburgh Penguins' team photographer, joining the team on the same day as future superstar Mario Lemieux. Fred earned his first contract with Golf Magazine in 1987 and became a staff photographer for the magazine in 1990. In 1998, Augusta National FedExed to Fred's home Arnold Palmer's green Masters jacket, which Fred took to Hawaii for a portrait used to illustrate a story for the 40th anniversary of Arnold's first Masters win. In 2000, Fred's photo of Payne Stewart winning the 1999 U.S. Open was named Gold Medal Golf Photo of the Year by the International Network of Golf.

In 2001, for his first assignment for Sports Illustrated, Fred captured a shot of Tiger Woods teeing off on the 18th hole at the Masters tournament in Augusta, GA, which graced the April 16, 2001 cover of Sports Illustrated, with the headline "Masterpiece". The photo was awarded the gold medal as Sports Photo of the Year worldwide from World Press Photo in Amsterdam and was named Gold Medal Golf Photo of the Year by the International Network of Golf.

Fred has photographed 28 Masters tournaments, 34 U.S. Opens, 24 British Opens, and 28 PGA Championships, and he has photographed Major League Baseball, the NFL, the NHL, the USGA, and the NCAA. Fred's photos have appeared in Golf Magazine, the New York Times, and Sports Illustrated, including 19 Sports Illustrated covers. Moreover, in 2004, Augusta National permitted Fred to mount a remote camera in Arnold Palmer's locker in the Champions Locker Room, to photograph Arnold after he missed the cut at his 50th and final competitive round at the Masters.

Fred's talent in photography has been recognized through numerous one-on-one photo sessions with notable persons such as George H.W. Bush, Gerald Ford, Rev. Jesse Jackson, Samuel L. Jackson, Cheryl Ladd, Mickey Mantle, Bill Murray, Arnold Palmer, Luciano Pavarotti, Jerry Rice, Kenny Rogers, O.J. Simpson, Donald Trump, and Steve Young.

Since 2018, Fred has been running the photo operation for both the Men's and Women's U.S. Opens and for three other corporate clients. In 2018, Fred was named to the Midland Sports Hall of Fame. Fred and his wife Sheryl have two children: Megan and Sam.

Mike WARFIELD

Coaching • Aliquippa

Over the years, Mike Warfield has led the Aliquippa Quips football team as a player and as a head coach.

Raised in Aliquippa, PA, Mike earned multiple letters at Aliquippa High School in basketball and football, helping as a senior in 1987 lead his basketball team to a WPIAL Championship and quarterbacking his football team to a 7-2 record.

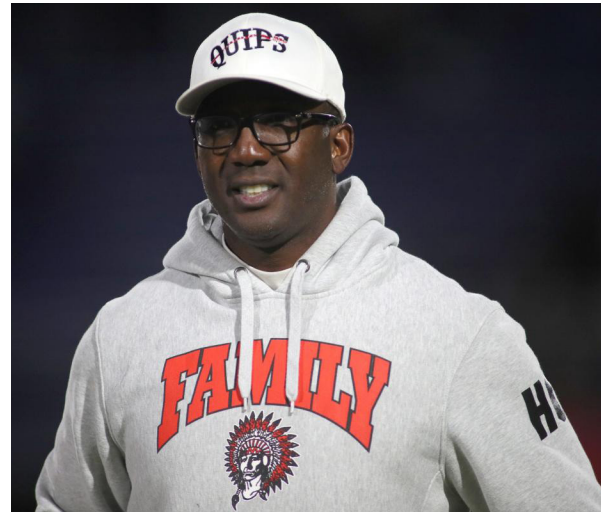

Mike earned a full football scholarship to Catawba College in Salisbury, NC, where he graduated in 1991 with degrees in sociology and political science. Mike quarterbacked the Catawba Indians in 1987, 1988, 1989, and 1991, finishing second all-time at the school with 6,923 passing yards and 7,678 total yards. In 1987, Mike was South Atlantic Conference (SAC) Freshman of the Year, and in 1988, Mike made second-team All-SAC, with his team winning the SAC Championship and qualifying for the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs. In 1993, Mike played professionally for the Hamburg Silver Eagles of the Germany International League, and, in 2005, Mike was inducted into the Catawba College Hall of Fame.

Mike graduated from the Pennsylvania State Police Academy in 1994. He spent 25 years in the Pennsylvania State Police Bureau of Drug Law Enforcement, serving 18 years as a Drug Enforcement Administration Federally Deputized Task Force Officer. Mike earned numerous awards, including BDLE Trooper of the Year, LEAD Awards, and the Department of Justice U.S. Attorney's Office Exemplary Service Award. In 2018, Mike retired from the Pennsylvania State Police, and, in 2019, U.S. Attorney Scott Brady appointed Mike as the Law Enforcement Coordinator for the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Western District of Pennsylvania. Mike stepped down from his position with the Department of Justice, to become a Regulatory Affairs Manager with McKesson Pharmaceuticals.

In 2018, Mike became the first African American head football coach for his alma mater, the Aliquippa Quips. Mike became only the third coach in WPIAL history to win both a WPIAL and PIAA Championship in his first year. In 2022, Mike led the Quips to their third Pennsylvania WPIAL/District 7 Championship. In just five years under Mike's leadership, the Quips have a combined record of 60-6, with five consecutive WPIAL Championship appearances, winning three WPIAL Championships (2018, 2021, 2022) and two PIAA State Championships (2018, 2021). In 2019, Mike was named Pennsylvania Football Writers 2018 Class AAA Coach of the Year, in 2021, Mike was named PA Football Writers Class 4A Coach of the Year and PAFootballNews.com Coaches Class 4A Coach of the Year, and, in 2021 and 2022, Mike was named Beaver County Times Coach of the Year.

Mike has been married to Victoria Warfield for 24 years, and they have three children: Deja', Jocelyn, and Isiah. Mike lives in Center, works for McKesson Pharmaceuticals, and coaches the Quips.

The 2022 Dick Kadis Award

MAGGIE TOWNSEND

Beaver County Christian High School • Geneva College

Maggie Townsend wrapped up a very strong career for the Geneva College women's volleyball program this past season. Maggie was one of the top servers in the conference, and she finished her career seventh all-time in Geneva history with 1,494 digs.

Maggie was a significant contributor all four years at Geneva and was named an all-conference performer the past two seasons as one of the top defensive players in the Presidents' Athletic Conference. As a junior in 2021, Maggie was named PAC Volleyball Defensive Player of the Week and Second Team All-PAC, and, as a senior, was named Honorable Mention All-PAC.

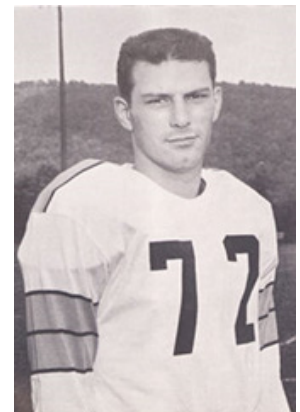

Maggie excelled in the classroom, where she was named to the PAC Academic Honor Roll all four seasons, while receiving academic recognition as a scholar athlete from the National Christian College Athletic Association and being named to the College Sports Communicators Association Academic All-District Team.

The Dick Kadis Award

On the evening of September 29, 1956, the Geneva College Golden Tornadoes traveled to Waynesburg College. During the course of play, 21-year-old Dick Kadis recovered a fumble, and, after rising from the bottom of the pile, left the game and did not return to action. While boarding the bus for the trip home, Dick collapsed, falling into a coma. Doctors later determined that he had suffered a massive brain hemorrhage. Dick eventually came out of the coma, but he was left in a semi-paralyzed state. Dick's mother and father, Pauline and Charles Kadis, cared for their son until August 1978, when they both suffered heart attacks. Dick was moved to a hospital and then to a nursing home, where at age 43, he died on October 18, 1979.

Tonight, as we have each year since he left us, we remember Dick Kadis.

CCBC AWARD

TANNER MATHOS • Basketball

Tanner Mathos is a 6'-8" forward from Beaver. Tanner is majoring in liberal studies with the goal of building a career around something he loves. His pregame rituals include stretching and praying. Tanner chose CCBC because of the great basketball program and opportunity to transfer to a four-year college to continue his basketball career. Tanner currently holds a 3.8 GPA, he is a team captain, and he is helping lead the men's basketball team into the Region 20 playoffs for the second straight season.

GENEVA AWARD

BYRON SPEAR • Volleyball

Byron Spear has excelled on the court and in the class over four years at Geneva. As a standout hitter on the men's volleyball team, Byron has put together one of the best careers in the five-year history of the program. He's a two-time all-conference selection, with a third all-conference selection likely at the end of this senior season. Byron is currently second all-time in kills and third all-time in digs in program history. In the classroom, all four years at Geneva, Byron earned selection on the conference honor roll as a AMCC Academic Peak Performer, which requires at least a 3.5 GPA. Byron is planning to attend seminary to become a missionary overseas.

PENN STATE BEAVER AWARD

ANDREW BOLLINGER • Soccer

Andrew Bollinger is a junior men's soccer player at Penn State Beaver. In his three years with the team, Andrew has logged one goal and one assist while playing the center back position. Over the past two years, Andrew's team has been 21-16-1, qualifying for the PSUAC playoffs both seasons. Academically, Andrew has really shined. Studying business – chain management, Andrew has achieved over a 3.8 GPA in his three years as a student-athlete, been named to the PSUAC All-Academic Team all three years, and been named USCAA All Academic twice.

Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame Mission Statement

There can be no dispute that, since the beginning of humanity, those persons making outstanding contributions to history are traditionally celebrated and remembered by their peers and those who follow them. Sports are part and parcel of the fabric of history. Sports heroes should be celebrated by that history. It is in this light, then, that the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame attempts to celebrate and honor select persons who have heroically contributed to the sports world with integrity, sportsmanship, and character.

Looking Back: 1998

Looking back 25 years on the Beaver County Sports Hall of Fame Class of 1998

Monaca and Penn State grad DICK DELUCA was All-County and All-WPIAL. Recruited by Joe Paterno, Dick played with the Nittany Lions. Dick later coached football and baseball at Freedom and Rochester.

team's Most Outstanding Senior and a North-South All-Star. Tom was drafted by the New York Jets.

At Kent State, Ambridge's DON FITZGERALD set NCAA records for carries in a game and season, broke the Mid-American record for yards gained, and was All-Conference. Don was drafted in the NFL draft and later signed with the Atlanta Falcons. In 1986, Don was inducted into the Kent State Hall of Fame.

New Brighton's MEL MILLER was All-County in football and All-County and All-WPIAL in basketball. Mel was New Brighton head basketball coach for 12 years, winning two section titles. Mel was a long-time superintendent of schools in New Brighton and was inducted into the New Brighton Sports Hall of Fame.

At Aliquippa, JOHN FOUSE earned 15 varsity letters across baseball, basketball, track, volleyball, and football. John was drafted by three football and two baseball pro sports teams. After college, a leg injury kept the Philadelphia Eagles from signing John to a contract. John signed with the Cleveland Indians, but a shoulder injury ended his career.

At Ambridge, WALT NADZAK JR won seven letters as a guard and defensive end and was All-WPIAL and All-State. At Denison University, Walt starred in baseball and football and, in 1987, was inducted into the Denison Hall of Fame. Walt later coached college, at Muskingum, Juniata, and UConn and was in charge of the Citadel sports program. Walt was inducted into the Ambridge Sports Hall of Fame.

At Freedom, JIM KARWOSKI earned nine letters in three sports and was All-County and All-WPIAL. Jim set school records in the shot put and javelin, winning both at the 1962 PIAA meet. At West Virginia, Jim set school and Southern Conference records in the shot put. Jim later coached at Penn State Beaver. Jim was inducted into the Commonwealth Campus Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in 1993 and was selected to coach for a U.S. Olympic team in 1992.

RICH NIEDBALA was a three-sport star at Beaver Falls. In 1971, Rich became head football coach at Western Beaver, where his Golden Beavers won championships in all three decades he coached. Rich was twice MAC Coach of the Year, eight times Section Coach of the Year, and three-time honoree of the Dapper Dan Club.

At Beaver Falls, TOM KRZEMIENSKI was All-WPIAL, All-State, and All-American, and played in the Big 33 game. At Michigan State, Tom was the football

Born in 1858, JIM TOY of Beaver Falls was the first person born in Beaver County to play major league baseball, debuting in 1887, playing in 109 games for the Cleveland Blues of the American Association, and making his final trip to the majors in 1890, playing for the Brooklyn Gladiators in the American Association.
